

Can You Relate?

Week 4

Breaking Through "I'm Right"
Filled Sermon Notes

There may be someone who could be a closer friend to you, but they are not because you give them limited room for their feelings, experiences and opinions.

Acts 15:36-41 (ESV)

When you are absolutely right, then they are absolutely wrong, and no one sees that maybe there is a third option.

2 Timothy 4:11 (ESV)

When I'm convinced I'm right, I will ask myself these questions:

1. What if I am wrong?
2. Am I right because I want to be right?
3. Have I asked the other person what they think, and given them permission to speak freely?
4. Is there a third option I am missing?
5. How can I be true to my conviction yet deepen my connection?
